15-21 April 1983

To coincide with the introduction of the new one-pound coin on the 21st April 1983 a National Coin Week was held in the United Kingdom between the 15th and 21st April.

On Monday 18th April the National Postal Museum opened a National Coin Week Exhibition with displays of stamps which feature coins in their design along with actual coins, dies and proofs. A special one day postmark was in use for the opening day.

On Thursday 21st April the one-pound coin was released for general circulation and there was a special postmark at the Royal Mint, Llantrisant, South Wales.

National Coin Week was jointly sponsored by the Royal Mint, British Numismatic Trade Association, the British Association of Numismatic Societies, British Museum and Coin & Medals News.

This commemorative cover was published by David Fletcher Ltd.,
3 Station Square, Coventry CV1 2GT.
